Greetings Colleagues and Teacher Candidates,

I would like to welcome you to the culminating and most exciting segment of our Initial Teacher Preparation Program in the College of Education and Human Performance; the internship experience. Our teacher candidates have engaged in rigorous coursework embedded in research and best practices. The teacher candidates are now ready to apply what they have learned in the real-world setting of the classroom. This invaluable experience is only possible through the collaborative work with our district partners, administrators, and collaborating teachers, to whom we are truly indebted.

This handbook serves as a valuable resource and guide for all aspects of the internship experience. It is critically important that all parties know and understand the policies, procedures, and timelines related to internship in order to ensure maximum professional growth. In addition to the information within the handbook, all documents pertaining to internship requirements are located on the Clinical Experiences website, located at http://education.ucf.edu/clinicalexp.

Becoming an educator is an exercise in applying and reflecting upon knowledge gained. A positive, supportive, and encouraging environment, including strong, effective mentoring is crucial for our teacher candidates to be successful in their own classrooms upon graduation. We appreciate you taking a part in this development. I know that our work together ensures this type of experience for our teacher candidates.

Thank you for helping to make the internship experience positive and impactful.

Sincerely,

Kelly Jennings-Towle, Ed.D.

The Internship Experience

In the process of developing knowledge, skills, and dispositions that prepare students to become teaching professionals, there are various levels of participation and experience for students in the College of Education and Human Performance, including essential coursework and exposure to classrooms and students. At the initial level of exposure to the classroom, there are field experiences associated with specific courses. In these experiences, students learn skills and techniques for working collaboratively with other professionals, for observing teaching, and for working with diverse populations of young children and families in contemporary society.

Internship I

Eligibility for Internship I

Application Deadlines: February 15 for Fall, September 15 for Spring

Admission to Internship I will be granted to students who have been admitted to the College of Education and Human Performance and who meet the following additional requirements at the time of application.

- Possess minimum overall GPA of 2.5.
- Possess minimum specialization GPA of 2.5.
- Possess minimum professional preparation GPA of 2.5.
- Complete a formal application for Internship I online by the deadlines.
- Meet any special departmental or program requirements.
- Be recommended by the faculty of the department of the student’s major.
- Upon Office of Clinical Experiences approval of the application, students are required to participate in a background check in the district where they are assigned. Certain criminal histories may prevent clearance.

What Happens in Schools

During Internship I, students are in school-based classrooms part-time, while completing co-requisite courses at UCF. They have the opportunity to observe teaching, to work with small groups of students, and to complete independent study projects in order to engage in experiential learning. In addition, Internship I students are expected to complete assignments from their co-requisite courses. Collaborating teachers and UCF coordinators observe the intern working with students and provide essential feedback about their performance.
Internship II

Eligibility for Internship II

Application Deadlines: February 15 for Fall, September 15 for Spring

Admission to Internship II will be granted to students who have been admitted to the College of Education and Human Performance and who meet the following additional requirements at the time of application.

- Complete all coursework required by program.

- Possess minimum overall GPA, specialization, and professional preparation GPA of 2.5 (3.0 Graduate); (Early Childhood – minimum GPA of 2.75).

- Achieve a “C-” or better in all prerequisite methods/specialization courses (Undergraduates only); (Early Childhood – minimum specialization GPA of 2.75).

- Meet any special departmental requirements (refer to catalog for program specific requirements).

- Be recommended by the faculty of departmental major.

- Upon final approval of their application, students are required to participate in a background check in the district where they are assigned. Certain criminal histories may prevent clearance.

What Happens in Schools

The College of Education and Human Performance teacher preparation culminating experience is a full-time semester-long student teaching. Internship II provides a structured, supervised process in which interns work with collaborating teachers to develop their teaching skills. In this experience, students gain extensive practice in teaching and in the knowledge, skills, and dispositions of their teaching fields. This final internship is the summative assessment of the program.

Interns are placed in schools and assume the work schedule of a full-time teacher, all day, five days a week, for a full semester. Interns practice to develop knowledge, skills, and dispositions of the teaching profession as measured by the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices (FEAPs).

College of Education and Human Performance faculty (i.e., university coordinators) supervise all internships and work closely with collaborating teachers to guide each intern in developing knowledge, skills, and dispositions, and evaluate teaching practices according to indicators of the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices (FEAPs).
Graduate Internships

Eligibility for Graduate Internship

Application Deadlines: February 15 for Fall, September 15 for Spring

Admission to Graduate Internship will be granted to students who have been admitted to the College of Education and Human Performance and who meet the following additional requirements at the time of application.

- Complete all coursework required by program.
- Possess minimum overall GPA, specialization, and professional preparation GPA of 2.5 (3.0 Graduate); (Early Childhood – minimum GPA of 2.75).
- Achieve a “C-“ or better in all prerequisite methods/specialization courses (Undergraduates only); (Early Childhood – minimum specialization GPA of 2.75).
- Passing scores on all sections of the Florida Teacher Certification Exam (Catalog Year 2014 and beyond).
- Complete a formal application for Graduate Internship by listed deadlines.
- Meet any special departmental requirements (refer to catalog for program specific requirements).
- Be recommended by the faculty of departmental major.
- Upon final approval of their application, students are required to participate in a background check in the district where they are assigned. Certain criminal histories may prevent clearance.

What Happens in Schools

The College of Education and Human Performance teacher preparation program’s final internship experience can either be a full-time, semester-long student teaching experience, or a part time, two semester-long student teaching experience. Graduate Internship provides a structured, supervised process in which interns work with collaborating teachers to develop their teaching skills. In this experience, students gain extensive practice in teaching and in the knowledge, skills, and dispositions of their teaching fields.

Interns can choose to complete their internship in one semester by enrolling full-time (6 hr) or in two semesters by enrolling part-time (3 hr). Interns completing a full-time internship are placed in schools and assume the work schedule of a full-time teacher for the whole day, five days a week, for a full semester. Interns completing a part-time internship are placed in schools and assume the work schedule of a full-time teacher for half of the day, five days a week, for two semesters. During internship, interns are able to practice and further develop knowledge, skills, and dispositions of the teaching profession as measured by the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices (FEAPs).

College of Education and Human Performance faculty (i.e., university coordinators) supervise all internships and work closely with collaborating teachers to guide each intern in developing knowledge, skills, and dispositions, and evaluate teaching practices according to indicators of the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices (FEAPs).
On-the-Job (OTJ) Internships

Eligibility for On-the-Job Internship

Application Deadline: 2 weeks prior to the beginning of the internship semester.

To complete an on-the-job (OTJ) internship, graduate students must:

- Meet all eligibility requirements for Graduate internship.
- Meet all academic requirements of the program.
- Complete a formal OTJ application by the posted deadlines.
- Be hired as a full-time instructor of record.
- Be hired to teach within the certification area appropriate to the graduate degree.
- Provide proof of hire from the principal of the school in which the intern will be teaching.
- Complete a semester long internship.
- Arrange with the school principal an appropriate mentor who will function as the collaborating teacher, sign the appropriate UCF documents, and provide ongoing feedback related to teacher growth.

What Happens in Schools

On-the-job (OTJ) interns will be observed by a university coordinator. It is also expected that the school will provide a mentor teacher. The OTJ intern follows policies, procedures, and guidelines of the school in which they work. The university coordinator will collaborate with the mentor teacher to guide the on-the-job intern in developing teaching skills, and evaluate teaching practice according to indicators of the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices (FEAPs). OTJ interns will register for the graduate course.

OTJ interns will complete their internship in two semesters by enrolling part-time (3 hr). OTJ interns will be expected to attend their teaching position for the whole day, five days a week. Students have two semesters to complete their required Teacher Work Sample that is turned in during their second semester.
Interns are developing teachers. They have received high quality training in research-based pedagogy. Positive coaching/mentoring experiences are beneficial, allowing a craft to develop appropriately. Collaborating teachers and university coordinators coach and mentor interns throughout the internship process. They regularly observe the intern and represent a unified message on midpoint and final evaluations.

Coaching and mentoring are essential elements of the model of clinical experiences in the College of Education and Human Performance at the University of Central Florida. The collaborative team works together to coach the intern. However, the collaborating teacher is the primary mentor in the process of developing the intern. Professional learning and growth of the intern can only occur when there is consistent coaching and strong, effective communication, including specific and meaningful feedback.

The most important and influential measure of an intern’s development is the written and oral constructive feedback received from the collaborating teacher and/or the university coordinator. Immediate feedback from the collaborating teacher and/or university coordinator tends to have greater meaning to the intern so he or she can accurately reflect on the events being evaluated. Collaborating teachers are encouraged to take written notes and use them for coaching the intern. Upon completion of the internship, collaborating teachers recommend a grade to the university coordinator, and UCF faculty determine the final grade.

Observing Teacher Practice

The UCF College of Education and Human Performance’s model of clinical experiences also requires consistent intern supervision and observation on a regular basis through formal and informal approaches. Internship I requires observations whenever interns are teaching small group and/or whole group lessons. Internship II requires multiple observations weekly and consistent feedback on intern performance according to the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices (FEAPs). Collaborating teachers and university coordinators must each complete a minimum of five formal observations.

In the feedback process, collaborating teachers provide the coaching required to promote growth in areas of needed improvement. This process requires that the collaborating teacher understands the intern’s teaching style to the extent that it lends itself to effective teaching. When this is not the case, the intern should be mentored through a process of change that will help lead to success in the internship.

Continuous Improvement

The university coordinator works closely with interns and collaborating teachers. Interns can consult with the university coordinator about teaching and learning, or address issues of concern. Seminars are provided for interns on various topics related to teaching and learning. These topics should be based on intern needs as determined by the collaborating teacher, coordinator, or interns.

Feedback

Interns need specific and ongoing feedback related to teacher performance. Feedback should be specific, consistent, and objective. Collaborating teachers are expected to provide critical and meaningful feedback.
Clinical supervision is both a concept and a process designed to improve teaching performance. The desired outcome from this process is to develop professionally responsible teachers who are committed to self-improvement through help from others, reflection on practice, and self-correction.

Effective clinical supervision should provide an opportunity for pre-service teachers to:

- Examine, discuss, and articulate their educational philosophies.
- Receive objective feedback on their teaching.
- Examine the relationship between their anticipated and actual performance in the classroom.
- Examine the relationship between their philosophies and other assumptions, theories, and research about effective teaching.
- Develop, implement, and receive support for appropriate changes in both their espoused and practiced educational beliefs.
- Examine the impact of their instruction on student learning/behaviors.
- Examine their performance related to expected outcomes on the district teacher evaluation system.

Robert Goldhammer's model for clinical supervision includes five stages:
1) pre-observation conference
2) observation
3) data analysis
4) post-observation conference
5) post-conference analysis

Pre-observation Conference

The purpose of this conference is to obtain information as to the teacher’s intentions (objectives of the lesson, planned procedures, criteria for evaluation, etc.), to establish a “contract” or agreement between the supervisor and the intern for carrying out the observation.

Examples of pre-observation questions:
1) How can I be of help to you?
2) What specifically do you wish me to look for?
3) What specifically do you wish me to know?
4) What would you like me to see the students do?
5) What are your understanding goals and expectations for the lesson?
6) How long would you like me to observe?
7) When can we get together to discuss the observation?
The Observation

The purpose of the observation is to view the lesson as planned in the pre-observation conference, and to collect data that may be used to improve or enrich knowledge, skills, and dispositions of the intern.

Data Analysis

The purpose of this step is to allow the observer time to review, sort, and assemble the data collected into a presentable form. This also allows the observer time to plan the post-observation conference.

The Post-Observation Conference

This conference occurs after the observation for the purpose of analyzing and discussing the lesson, addressing concerns, and developing an action plan for intern performance to be enhanced, maintained, or improved. This conference should be held no later than 24 hours after the observation.

Examples of post-observation questions:

1) How do you think the lesson went?
2) What were the students doing during your lesson that made you feel this way?
3) What do you remember about what you did or the strategies you used?
4) How does this compare with what you expected would happen?
5) Why do you think it happened this way?
6) Would you like me to share what I observed?

Post-conference Analysis

This analysis allows the observer to process the entire cycle, evaluate whether or not the intern and the observer came to an agreement regarding the appropriate way(s) to provide needed assistance to the intern. It also allows the observer to evaluate his/her own performance during the conference.
Co-teaching and the Internship

It has become more common that teacher preparation programs embrace co-teaching models, where teacher candidates and collaborating teachers work together to maximize student achievement potential. The intern and the collaborating teacher working together can be a valuable experience for students when co-teaching occurs. Some benefits to co-teaching include a reduced student to teacher ratio, increase in student achievement, and learning from each other’s strengths. Suggested co-teaching approaches* are listed below:

One Teach/One Observe: In the beginning of the internship, it is important for the collaborating teacher to model effective teaching strategies for the intern. While the collaborating teacher is teaching, the intern can observe effective teaching practices, while also taking note of student responses. Co-teachers who implement this approach to co-teaching benefit from one person observing what students are doing while another is teaching. Data collected during this approach can result in powerful gains in lesson development.

One Teach/One Assist: One teacher teaches a group of students, while the other is assisting. This may include helping the teacher reach students who need extra support during the lesson. While one teacher teaches, the other may be circulating and guiding students.

Parallel Teaching: Both teachers are teaching the same content, but to different groups of students at the same time. This approach reduces the student to teacher ratio. One teacher may be teaching a lesson to half of the class, while the other teacher is teaching the same lesson to the other half of the class.

Station Teaching: Both teachers are teaching at the same time, but different concepts, and to different students.

Alternative Teaching: One teacher is teaching a larger group of students while another is teaching a smaller group of students.

Team Teaching: Both teachers deliver the instruction to the same group of students at the same time. The lesson is co-presented by both teachers.

During the internship, various stages of co-teaching will occur. A natural progression would be that the intern and collaborating teacher begin with the one teach/one observe and one teach/one assist models and, over time, parallel teaching, station teaching, alternative teaching, and team teaching will become the norm.

Each collaborating teacher and intern will find approaches that work best for them, the students they teach, and the specific school goals.
ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Intern
The intern becomes part of a learning community in the process of the internship, and works closely with the collaborating teacher, the university coordinator, and the school principal in the process of becoming a teaching professional. The intern also follows the guidance of the collaborative team, and meets expectations of the internship and academic program requirements.

School Administration
The principal is instrumental in facilitating a learning environment in which the intern can learn and grow. The principal sets expectations for the collaborating teachers and communicates school expectations to the intern.

Collaborating Teacher
The role of the collaborating teacher is to work together with the intern, the university coordinator, and the principal to guide and assist the intern in developing knowledge, skills, and dispositions essential to the teaching profession. The collaboration should emphasize the application of understanding developed in university coursework and pre-internship field experiences.

The collaborating teacher’s responsibility also includes observing and evaluating the effectiveness of the intern’s teaching practice. Review and appropriate discussion of results of observations are essential to the development of knowledge, skills, and dispositions in teaching practice. The collaborating teacher and the university coordinator collaborate on the frequency of observations. However, the collaborating teacher must observe and provide feedback to the intern at least once per week. Upon completion of the internship, collaborating teachers recommend a grade to the university coordinator, and UCF faculty determine the final grade. It is recommended that a documented log of communication is kept to demonstrate patterns in progress.

University Coordinator
The university coordinator facilitates the experience of the interns with the collaborating teacher and students in the classroom. The university coordinator also provides consistent support for the intern and collaborating teacher during the course of the internship experience. University coordinators visit schools, observe interns, facilitate seminars on teaching and learning, confer with collaborating teachers and interns, and serve as a resource for the internship collaborative team. The university coordinator works closely with collaborating teachers to determine the most appropriate grade for the internship experience. Upon completion of the internship, collaborating teachers recommend a grade to the university coordinator, and UCF faculty determine the final grade.
RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE INTERN

The Internship Collaborative Team supports the intern throughout the process of the internship. However, the intern should understand the importance of maintaining standards of performance as well as consistently practicing professional responsibility. Interns should use the following as a guide throughout the semester.

- Understand that daily attendance and punctuality is mandatory at the assigned school, as well as attendance at pre-scheduled seminars by the university coordinator.
- Consistently demonstrate professional conduct in actions and attire.
- Adhere to school policies and procedures.
- Work the school duty schedule of the collaborating teacher.
- Maintain confidentiality of information received about students or school personnel.
- Be fair, impartial, and consistent in working with children.
- Be aware of and meet all deadlines for assignments that are required (Internship I). It is the intern’s responsibility to review the program syllabi and to communicate requirements to collaborating teachers.
- Prepare lesson plans, including Florida Standards, for every lesson that will be taught during the internship experience and submit for review to collaborating teacher (Internship I).
- Submit daily lesson plans to collaborating teacher for feedback and suggestions.
- Include modifications and adaptations that provide for individual differences among the children.
- Accept feedback provided by collaborating teachers and university coordinators.
- Demonstrate proficiency in all Florida Educator Accomplished Practices.
RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE INTERN

The Internship Collaborative Team supports the intern throughout the process of the internship. However, the intern should understand the importance of maintaining standards of performance as well as consistently practicing professional responsibility. Interns should use the following as a guide throughout the semester.

- Welcome constructive suggestions by the collaborating teacher and the university coordinator and incorporate them in subsequent planning and teaching.

- During Internship II, demonstrate competency in ESOL standards (a score of “E” or “S”) indicated on the final ESOL Performance Profile (applies only to Early Childhood, English Language Arts, Elementary and Exceptional Education majors).

- Works closely with the collaborating teacher regarding routine and/or serious discipline problems.

- Passing scores of all sections of Florida Teacher Certification Exam either before Internship II (Catalog Year 2014 and beyond) or before graduation (Catalog Year up to 2013).

- Attend, whenever possible, professional meetings, in-service programs, evening activities sponsored by the school, and parent meetings.

Assessment of these professional dispositions is integrated into key formative and summative standards-based performance assessments in initial and advanced educator preparation programs in the unit.

Procedures

If any faculty or staff member has a concern with a candidate’s professional dispositions and/or performance concern(s), the following guidelines will be used for counseling, documenting and remediating concerns:

1. Candidates enrolled in certification programs in the College of Education and Human Performance are provided information concerning the UCF College of Education and Human Performance Code of Professional Conduct document and how the unit’s professional dispositions and/or performance are assessed in alignment with the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices. The information is located on the CEDHP website, course syllabi, and the Student Teaching Handbook.

2. If any faculty or staff member has a concern with a candidate’s professional dispositions and/or performance concern(s), that faculty or staff member shall counsel with the candidate. If the concern persists, the faculty or staff member will conduct a formal counseling session with the candidate and document the concern(s) and develop a plan for improvement using the Professional Dispositions and/or Performance Concern(s) Remediation Form. Copies of the completed form will be provided to the candidate, the candidate’s advisor, the appropriate Faculty Administrator associated with School or Department, School Director or Department Chair, Offices of Undergraduate/Graduate Affairs, Director for Accreditation and Program Approval, and Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

3. When a plan of action does not satisfactorily resolve the candidate’s professional dispositions and/or performance concern(s), the faculty or staff member will notify the appropriate School Director or Department Chair, who will convene a faculty committee (e.g., standing or ad hoc School or Departmental Candidate Issues Committee) meeting for the purpose of recommending, deferring, or denying the candidate’s further progression in the program.

4. Candidates who are denied further progression by the faculty committee may pursue the following appeal process:
   - The candidate sends a letter to the College of Education and Human Performance, Office of the Dean/Associate Dean for Academic Affairs asking to appeal the School or Departmental decision.
   - The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs responds with a letter to the candidate requesting the candidate provide appropriate documentation to support the appeal. The candidate has 10 days from the date the letter is received to respond in writing.
   - The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs has 10 days from the date the documentation is received to respond in writing.
• If the candidate wishes to appeal the responsible Associate Dean for Academic Affairs’ decision, the candidate sends a letter to the Dean of the College of Education and Human Performance asking to appeal the decision.

• The College Dean responds with a letter to the candidate requesting the candidate to provide appropriate documentation to support the appeal. The candidate has 10 days from the date the letter is received to respond in writing.

• The College Dean has 10 days from the date the documentation is received to respond in writing.

• The College Dean is the final level of appeal for the candidate.

State Board of Education Rule 6B-1.001, FAC*
The Code of Ethics of the Education Profession in Florida

(1) The educator values the worth and dignity of every person, the pursuit of truth, devotion to excellence, acquisition of knowledge, and the nurture of democratic citizenship. Essential to the achievement of these standards are the freedom to learn and to teach and the guarantee of equal opportunity for all.

(2) The educator’s primary professional concern will always be for the student and for the development of the student’s potential. The educator will therefore strive for professional growth and will seek to exercise the best professional judgment and integrity.

(3) Aware of the importance of maintaining the respect and confidence of one’s colleagues, of students, of parents, and of other members of the community, the educator strives to achieve and sustain the highest degree of ethical conduct.

Teachers are held to the highest standards in the community. They are expected to dress appropriately. When preparing for an internship, a few things need to be considered when building a wardrobe. Some of these are comfort, practicality and professionalism. Outward appearance often has an effect on the amount of respect given by students and other faculty/staff. Keep in mind, interns not only represent themselves in the classroom, but also the UCF College of Education and Human Performance. Typically, interns should dress in ‘business casual’ attire, unless asked otherwise.

Here are a few suggestions on how to dress while attending your internship:

- Hair – Neat, natural styles. No extreme colors or cuts.

- Tops – Shirts should be clean and without wrinkles. Avoid tight fitting blouses, tank tops and t-shirts. Do not expose midriffs, undergarments, or cleavage.

- Pants or Skirts – Pants should be neatly pressed, clean, and should fit comfortably. Skirts should be no higher than an inch above the knee. Avoid jeans and pants with rips or tears.

- Shoes – Closed toe, closed heel shoes are recommended. No flip flops. Remember, teaching involves prolonged periods of standing, so take comfort into consideration when choosing footwear.

- Accessories – Makeup should be natural and jewelry kept to a minimum and tasteful. There should be no visible body piercings or tattoos.

- Hygiene – Appropriate grooming and bathing should be reflected in appearance and smell.

  Teachers are always on stage. Dress the part!
The collaborating teacher has an essential role as a member of the collaborative team. As a daily observer of the intern, the collaborating teacher is the pivotal support in terms of mentoring and assessing progress of the intern.

All school district personnel and instructional personnel who supervise or direct teacher preparation students during field experience courses or internships must have evidence of “clinical educator” training and must successfully demonstrate effective teaching strategies that consistently result in improved student performance.

Collaborating Teacher
Requirements

The Collaborating teacher must meet the following requirements:

• Completed three years of successful teaching with effective/highly effective, or the equivalent, ratings.
• Completed Clinical Educator Training as described in Florida State Statutes, Section 1004.04, through either:
  a. District-sponsored in-service or
  b. University-sponsored coursework.

Demonstrate outstanding performance in:

• Receive “effective” or “highly effective” rating on performance appraisal.
• Classroom management strategies that consistently result in improved student performance.
• The proven ability to mentor adults.
• Strategies for incorporating technology into classroom instruction and record-keeping.
• Methods for linking instructional plans to state and national standards.
• Instructional strategies that address various learning styles, exceptionalities, achievement levels, and other special circumstances.
• Assessment of student learning.
• Teaching strategies for instruction of English Learners (EL) students.

ESOL Endorsement

• If the collaborating teacher of an intern in an ESOL eligible major does not have ESOL endorsement, the collaborating teacher and UCF Coordinator will arrange for ESOL experiences, as appropriate, with an ESOL qualified teacher in the school.

The Student Teacher Acceptance Form, signed by the principal, the collaborating teacher, the county representative, and the university, also outlines these criteria.
RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COLLABORATING TEACHER

As a member of the collaborative team, the collaborating teacher oversees a process in which the intern develops understanding of the education process and begins to demonstrate competency in the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices (FEAPs). In demonstrating effective clinical supervision practice, the collaborating teacher is a coach and mentor to the intern in the learning and developing process.

Mentoring and Coaching an Intern

The following items are ongoing activities and should take place throughout the internship.

- Read and review the Student Teaching Handbook: A Guide for Internship and Clinical Practice.
- Provide opportunities for the intern to teach at least once per week beginning no later than the third week of the internship (Internship I).
- Provide plan for swift induction to the teaching process in planning for assuming responsibility for full-time teaching (Internship II).
- Clarify teaching assignments and instructional planning procedures.
- Help the intern develop effectiveness in teaching through joint planning.
- Supervise and guide the intern as he/she plans and teaches.
- Assess the intern’s work with students.
- Demonstrate and clarify effective teaching strategies.
- Collaborate with the university coordinator to discuss areas of needed improvement when necessary.
- Create a climate in which the intern feels free to ask questions.
- Keep lines of communication open between members of the collaborative team.
- Praise and encourage.
- Share professional experiences and materials.
- Demonstrate and explain the major activities of the public school teacher.
- Create an atmosphere in which the intern is accepted as a professional colleague.
- Orient the intern to facilities and learning materials.
- Model high leverage practices that engage students in quality learning experiences.
RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COLLABORATING TEACHER

- Build positive relationships.
- Capitalize on the special interests, talents, and background of the intern to enrich the curriculum.
- Assess daily the strengths and areas of needed improvement in the intern’s effectiveness in the teaching-learning situation.
- Provide continuous feedback and analysis of intern’s daily teaching performance.
- Help the intern implement recommendations received during daily feedback/mentoring input.

Evaluation – Internship I

- Observe each lesson taught by the intern to determine progress.
- Discuss immediately any unacceptable behavior or performance of the intern with the internship liaison, principal and/or the Office of Clinical Experiences.
- Review the Internship I Checklist and meet with intern and UCF Coordinator to complete midpoint and final evaluation forms.
- The midpoint and final Internship I Evaluation Forms should be signed by the intern, collaborating teacher, and UCF Coordinator.

Evaluation – Internship II

- Formal observations taught by the intern to determine progress (5 minimum).
- Discuss immediately any unacceptable behavior or performance with the intern, the university coordinator (and principal, if appropriate).
RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COLLABORATING TEACHER

Evaluation – Internship II

☐ Both collaborating teacher and university coordinator must complete ongoing observations, a midpoint, and a final evaluation for interns using the internship evaluation rubric. The observations, midpoint and final evaluation should all be discussed with the intern and university coordinator. The final intern evaluation summary is completed as a team: intern, collaborating teacher, and university coordinator.

☐ Collaborate with the university coordinator and collaborating teacher to develop a professional development plan (PDP), which details a plan of continuous improvement, and provides specifics that describe how improvement is to be achieved.

☐ Complete the midpoint and final evaluations and discuss with the intern. All evaluation forms are available on the Office of Clinical Experiences website at www.education.ucf.edu/clinicalexp. Forms are also located in the appendices.

☐ All evaluations must be signed by the intern, university coordinator and the collaborating teacher.
The university coordinator plays an essential role in the internship experience, and works closely with the collaborating teacher, the interns, and the principal to ensure the success of the intern. The university coordinator:

- Understands and communicates College of Education and Human Performance policies and procedures effectively.
- Positively represents the UCF College of Education and Human Performance.
- Participates as a collaborating member of the internship team.
- Conducts an orientation with the intern before internship begins.
- Holds an initial welcome meeting with the collaborating teacher and intern within the first two weeks of internship.
- Confers regularly with the internship collaborative team: collaborating teacher, intern, and site administrator.
- Mentors the intern and provides feedback as appropriate, including analysis of written unit and/or lesson plans.
- Provides resources and assistance to schools as requested and appropriate.
- Works with collaborating teachers and interns on internship evaluation.
- Makes recommendations, as appropriate, concerning withdrawal, reassignment, or extension of the internship experience.
- Conduct midpoint and final evaluation meetings including collaborating teacher and intern. Note: All midpoint and final evaluation copies must be signed by the university coordinator, the intern, and the collaborating teacher.
- Confers regularly with the intern during the semester to:
  - Provide encouragement.
  - Assess progress of the internship.
  - Provide opportunities to meet and discuss the internship in a seminar format.
- Reviews and evaluates the Teacher Work Sample
- Evaluates the internship and assigns a “satisfactory” or “unsatisfactory” grade (graduate students receive a letter grade – A, B or F).
- If necessary, works closely with collaborating teacher to complete Student Concerns process if performance remediation is required.
The internship is an opportunity for growth, both personally and professionally. Interns are held to the highest standards, just as teachers are. In the event there is a concern about an intern’s performance, it is critical that the collaborating teacher, intern, and university coordinator work diligently to resolve in the most expeditious and collaborative manner.

Sometimes, a further review of issues is needed. In the event the issues in performance cannot be resolved among the collaborating teacher, intern, and university coordinator, the university coordinator should immediately notify the Student Issues Committee (SIC) Chair. The SIC will review all circumstances and documentation to determine an intervention to help the intern succeed, while considering the needs of the school site. Recommendations by the faculty committee may include (but not limited to): establishing an improvement plan, taking additional coursework to build skills, retaking previous coursework to ensure mastery of the teaching craft, counseling services, withdrawal from the internship, and change of major. Students who wish to appeal the recommendation of the SIC should follow the appeal procedures outlined in the CEDHP Code of Professional Conducts.

Collaborating teacher, intern, and university coordinator work quickly to resolve the issue.

If issue still not resolved, the university coordinator contacts the SIC and fills out a Personal Attributes Concerns Form with strong documentation of concern (See Appendix).

The SIC meets to review performance issues.

The SIC makes recommendation to School Director or Department Chair.
EVALUATION OF THE INTERNSHIP

Benchmarks for Evaluation

All University of Central Florida interns (Internship I, Internship II, Graduate, and On-the-Job) are evaluated based on the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices (FEAPs), which are addressed in coursework and used in evaluation of work prior to the internship experience. Depending upon the type of internship (I, II, or Graduate) interns are evaluated by using some or all FEAPs.

Evaluation of the Internship

Progress of interns is evaluated throughout the course of the internship. The intern, collaborating teacher, and the university coordinator collaborate on the evaluation process. Collaborating teachers and university coordinators complete ongoing formal observations, including a midpoint and a final.

ESOL

Interns in Early Childhood Education, Elementary Education, English Language Arts Education, and Exceptional Education will qualify for the ESOL endorsement. Collaborating teachers and university coordinators use the ESOL Performance Profile as a guide in evaluating ESOL competencies demonstrated in the internship.

*An F grade can be given if performance standards are not met and it is determined that the intern will not pass the internship.

The final evaluation is determined by performance in teaching and in meeting requirements of the academic program. There must be achievement at a minimal level of mastery based on the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices, and UCF College of Education and Human Performance standards of internship performance.

Attendance

It is imperative that you are in attendance on a daily basis. You are expected to follow your school’s requirements in regard to what time you need to report for duty and what time you may leave each day. Being ready to report to duty means that you are in the classroom ready to begin the day’s activities, not pulling into the parking lot or signing in. It is strongly suggested that you arrive earlier and stay later than required in order to optimally communicate with your teacher and be fully organized and prepared.
• In the event of an absence, you MUST call your collaborating teacher and your university coordinator the night before the absence or before the school days begins, to inform them of your absence. Make-up days will be added to the end of the internship.

• It is further expected that you take part in all roles that your classroom teacher is expected to assume. For example, you should attend staff meetings, parent-teacher conferences, open house, and so on.

• Only the following absences do not need to be made up:
  o Seminars and orientations facilitated by the university.
  o College of Education Career Fairs (check website calendar for specific dates)
  o Any days that are missed due to natural disasters of unforeseen school closures (hurricanes, tornadoes, etc.), unless a makeup day is scheduled by the district and falls during the intern’s scheduled placement time.

Please note: Attendance patterns are considered in the overall evaluation of the internship, in spite of make-up days. The coordinator and/or collaborating teacher may use patterns in attendance to determine whether or not an intern has successfully demonstrated professional conduct within the accomplished practice of ethics. In cases where excess absences have occurred, or where patterns of attendance have interfered with the instructional momentum of the classroom, an ‘Unsatisfactory’ grade will be assigned.
Internship Placement Procedures

The UCF College of Education and Human Performance teacher preparation programs are state-approved, leading to initial teacher certification. Therefore, the selection of the internship placement is key to ensure experiences that match the settings for which pre-service teachers have been prepared. Certificate of Participation Guidelines and Request Form

In appreciation of your supervision of UCF College of Education and Human Performance interns, we are able to offer you a Certificate of Participation (COP). COPs are issued on behalf of the Florida Board of Governors, in appreciation of services rendered to the State of Florida and the State University System. The COP entitles you to exempt the tuition fee for up to six hours during one term (1 semester) of instruction, including credit courses offered through continuing education programs, at any state university in Florida. If you chose to take only 3 hours, the entire COP will be cashed in and cannot carry over to another term. Therefore, taking 6 hours in one semester will allow you to get the most value out of your COP. You will be required to pay all current fees applicable at the time of registration except tuition fees and comply with all applicable statutes and policies of the State of Florida and its agencies regarding admission and registration.

COPs are non-transferable and expire 3 years from the date of issue.

Certificate of Participation Requirements:

One COP is issued after the supervision of any one of the following:

1 senior intern (any major)
1 6hr graduate (any major)
1 FLVS intern (junior or senior)
1 sport/exercise practicum students
4 junior elementary interns
4 junior ESE interns
4 early childhood seminar students
2 junior secondary interns
2 On-the-job interns (any major)
2 (3)hr graduate interns (any major)

Once you have met the requirements for earning a COP, return this completed form to the UCF CED&HP Office of Clinical Experiences (fax# 407-823-3728) or email to kathleen.ward@ucf.edu. COPs are processed at the end of each semester upon verification of placement data. Issuance of COPs is contingent upon meeting the requirements of collaborating teachers as described in the Student Teaching Handbook. Once the Certificate of Participation is processed, reviewed, and authorized, the new electronic pdf version Certificate of Participation will be emailed directly to you.

Thank you for all you do to support the UCF College of Education and Human Performance.

ESOL Performance Profile/TESOL Notebook Complete* Yes No

*Elementary Ed., Early Childhood, ESE, and English Ed.

Additional Comments:
1. Professional Development Plan: To be created by the third week of internship. The plan will be checked by the UCF coordinator during the first observation and signed off by the UCF coordinator, collaborating teacher, and intern by the final point in the semester to indicate the plan has been completed. The plan will be turned into UCF.

2. Internship Assessment Rubric: A reflection of the intern’s performance progress at the midpoint and at the final point of the internship semester. The rubric scores are translated to Live Text by the UCF coordinator to capture the progress at both midpoint and final. The midpoint and final assessment rubrics are signed by the intern, the collaborating teacher, and the UCF Coordinator. Interns are to submit both the midpoint and final assessment rubrics to Webcourses by deadlines noted each semester.

3. Internship Observation Instrument: Used to reflect the level of performance during formal observations. A minimum of 5 formal observations should be conducted by the collaborating teacher by the end of the internship semester. Additionally, a minimum of 3 formal observations should be completed by the UCF coordinator throughout the semester. The observation instrument is used by the collaborating teacher and UCF coordinator to give constructive feedback on performance. Interns are to submit signed observations to Webcourses as they are completed throughout the semester.

4. Teacher Work Sample: The Teacher Work Sample rubric will be used by the UCF coordinator to determine the rating for each component. The Teacher Work Sample is required to demonstrate the intern’s impact on P-12 student learning.

5. ESOL Performance Profile/TESOL Notebook: Interns with majors in Elementary Education, Early Childhood Development & Education, Exceptional Education, and English Language Arts Education must demonstrate proficiency with all ESOL Standards by the end of the semester. The collaborating teacher will initial and date each standard on the ESOL Performance Profile once satisfactorily demonstrated by the intern. The UCF coordinator will sign off on the ESOL Performance Profile after having reviewed it. Interns are to submit the ESOL Performance Profile to Webcourses by deadlines noted each semester.

*TESOL Notebook required only for catalog years prior to Summer 2016.

Grading

Undergraduate Interns: A final grade of S or U will be assigned. To earn a grade of S, all indicators must reflect a level 3 performance.

Graduate Interns: A final grade of A, B or F will be assigned. To earn a grade of B, all indicators must reflect a level 3 performance. An A grade will be assigned only when the majority of indicators are reflected at a level 4 performance.
