Learn More About Instructional Strategies for Your K-12 Classroom! Fully On-line Courses!

OPPORTUNITIES THIS SPRING AT UCF

EEX 6061 Instructional Strategies PreK-6: Learn instructional and curricular needs of elementary-aged students with mild disabilities.

EEX 6065 Programming for Students with Disabilities at the Secondary Level: Learn specific, evidence-based instructional intervention approaches, current issues, and curriculum content for secondary students with disabilities.

EEX 6246 Nature of Autism: Theory & Educational Practice Learn theory and teaching applications for students with autism spectrum disorders.

EEX 6524 Organization and Collaboration in Special Education Learn the key administrative issues by investigating and comparing organizational structures of selected school systems.

IT’S EASY AS 1..2..3!

1. Begin the Process
   - Go to: www.admissions.graduate.ucf.edu
   - Complete Application Information

2. Complete All Necessary Forms
   - Residence Classification
   - Immunization Form
   - Payment Section- $30 ($2 additional fee)

3. Submit Application
   - You will receive an e-mail notification verifying your application has been received.
   - Go to www.my.ucf.edu to see if your application is complete or still missing documents.

For more information please contact:
Mary Little, Coordinator of Graduate Studies, Special Education mary.little@ucf.edu
College of Education Graduate Affairs: (407) 823-5369