Explore innovative research, perspectives, technology and best practices for teaching High-Ability, Gifted and Talented learners

Topics Include:

Developing Brilliance in: Immigrants and ELL Learners; Gifted young women; Urban high ability; Twice-Exceptional. Discovering brilliance, Advocating for brilliance.

Strategies for New Technologies and Tools
Identifying Underserved, developing talent
Reaching and teaching Title I, Creative Thinking and Productivity, Cultural perspectives and global education, Counseling and affective education.

Keynote Speakers:
Dr. Gillian Eriksson, Dr. Joyce Nutta, Dr. Donita Grissom (School of Teaching Learning and Leadership, U.C.F.)
Dr. Carole Ruth Harris. (Gifted and Talented Services, Orlando).
Zachary Laschober (Brevard County)

Sponsored by ADAGE with FLAG Region IV as a community service no charge for registration.

Concurrent Session Presenters

Program Coordinator:
Dr. Gillian Eriksson,
UCF Gifted Education.
UCF Faculty Advocates: Dr. Michele Gill; Dr. Thomas Murray; Dr. Glenda Gunter; Dr. Stacy van Horn; Dr. Laurie Campbell
Teachers: Michelle Kepple; Derek Cavilla, Susan Sikes, Jana Spitalnick; Terri Pope Hellmund, Tricia Aylward; Rachel Peterson; Christine Herlihy, Zachary Laschober
Gifted Specialists: Tracey Merritt (Osceola) Cindy Garber (Volusia) Michelle Nunez (Galileo School for Gifted Learning), Jeanette Lukens (Seminole)
Molly Ahearn; Gayle Courtney