

UCF College of Education and Human Performance Graduate Student Writing Support

Fall 2016

Support will be provided with the intention of developing graduate students' writing. If students need basic help with thesis, research, dissertation, or even general writing assignments, there is now writing support available right here in the College. Examples of the kind of assistance that may be received include: grammar, syntax, word choice, punctuation, formatting, and APA.

Please follow the steps below to make a 30 minute appointment and take advantage of this service!

Where? Kysilka Graduate Student Study, ED 120

When? Fall Semester 2016 by appointment (see program availability, below)

| Monday | Wednesday |
|----------------------------------|-------------------|
| (Doctoral students only.) | |
| 5:00 PM – 8:00 PM | 5:00 PM – 8:00 PM |

How? Follow this process for making writing support appointments.

1. Go to the College of Education and Human Performance, Graduate Affairs website (www.education.ucf.edu/grad/) and click the link at the bottom of the page to request a writing support session.
 - a. Click the link "MAKE AN APPOINTMENT"
 - b. Fill out the online form completely and submit.
 - c. The requesting individual will receive a confirmation of the appointment date and time within 48 hours.
2. Students should arrive a few minutes early for their session to ensure that it can begin on time. At the end of the session, students will be asked to complete an electronic feedback survey (approximately 1-2 minutes) prior to leaving the Kysilka Graduate Student Study.