1. Discuss what the new meetings are – business vs. professional development
   - Business Meetings will be used for all KDP “business” topics (events, community service, socials, dates, etc) and as an open forum for members to suggest different ideas for the organization.
   - Professional Development Meetings will be entirely dedicated to professional development opposed to splitting the meeting for business and professional development.

2. Ideas from members
   - Post events to the UCF weekly email
   - Work with CECO

3. Discuss changing points to all events being worth 2 points
   - Following Meeting inducted members stayed to vote on this proposed change.
     o Members voted in favor of changing points.
     o Starting in the Spring semester ALL events are worth 2 points.

5. Conference
   - February 25
   - Tell members what will be going on at the Conference

6. Babysitting Event
   - Allow professors, in the College of Education, leave their kids with us at school while they have a night out.
   - Looking into this idea for next semester

7. Meeting dates for next semester
   - Professional Development: January 11
   - Business: January 25
