UCF Morgridge International Reading Center

literacy coach re-boot camp 2015

Save the Date June 22-26, 2015

Learn with Dr. Enrique A. Puig

Dr. Enrique A. Puig is internationally known for his expertise in literacy coaching (K-12). He has shared his expertise in New Zealand, Scotland, Canada, Hungary, Austria, and Sweden. In 1997 his work with cadres of literacy coaches started in Orange County, FL in collaboration with the Ohio State University, Georgia State University, Purdue University, and Texas Tech University. With over 35 years of teaching and coaching experience, Enrique has lead schools from the US Virgin Islands to Washington in transforming teacher and student learning. He has authored numerous curriculum content materials, articles, chapters, books, and training materials. He is co-author of The Literacy Coach: Guiding in the Right Direction, 2e (2011).

To learn more about this professional learning opportunity visit: www.mirc.ucf.edu.

During the reboot camp you will:

- Investigate how your coaching is shaped through your language and beliefs on a continuum of coaching.
- Examine foundational themes of coaching and how they impact your work with teacher-colleagues across content areas to foster a professional learning community of practice.
- Explore the role of the coach in a multi-tier system of support in an integrated literacy model for instruction.
- Turn the language of core standards into explicit statements and units of professional learning to meet the needs of teacher-colleagues.
- Improve data interpretation to shape instruction.
- Develop an understanding of text complexity and close reading as a strategic activity.

Save the Date June 22-26, 2015